PARISH PRIEST:

Rev. Fr. Michael Raymond OFM.Cap

CDM KAMPUNGKU: APRIL 2022
Mercy Revealed

We who have been walking throughout these weeks of Lent have come to see that we are no different from this woman. We too have been trapped in our sinful condition, wanting to be free of our compulsions, our disorders, our sinful ways, but feeling unable to overcome them. We feel ashamed and condemned at times by interior voices which tell us that we are not good enough, not worthy of God's love. Today, in this liturgy, Jesus breaks into our lives as well. He confronts and banished our accusers, and offers us an opportunity for conversion, the grace to begin anew, to leave behind our sinful way of life and take up a new life with him.

This time, as we begin this Fifth Week of Lent, now, is the time of our visitation. Jesus breaks into our lives, as he broke into the life of the adulterous woman, and he offers to free us from sin and condemnation by his power at work in us. In this Lenten season we are called to recognise ourselves as sinners and ask God for forgiveness. In its turn, while forgiveness reconciles us and gives us peace, it lets us start again, renewed. Every true conversion is oriented towards a new future, a new life, a beautiful life, a life free from sin, a generous life. Let us not be afraid to ask Jesus for forgiveness because he opens the door to this new life for us. "Let us accept his great gift of mercy with joyful and grateful hearts, trusting in him to bring us into his new life."

In what ways have I acted like the accusers in the Gospel? What is inner response when I am convicted in my conscience of my sin? During Lent, how have I been responding to God's mercy as he always forgives me?
