Listening in Mercy

implies intimacy with him, which is strengthened in prayer, in the heart-to-heart encounter with the Divine Master and Shepherd of our souls.

This intimacy with Jesus, this openness, speaking with Jesus, reinforces in us the desire to follow him, by emerging from the labyrinth of errant ways, abandoning selfish behaviour in order to set out on new paths of fraternity and of self-giving, in imitation of him. Let us not forget that Jesus is the only Shepherd who speaks to us, knows us, gives us eternal life and safeguards us. We are the only flock and we only have to strive to hear his voice, while he lovingly examines the sincerity of our hearts. And from this constant intimacy with our Shepherd, from this colloquy with him, springs the joy of following him, allowing ourselves to be led to the fullness of eternal life.

We also take this weekend to celebrate Mother's Day. I would like to wish all mothers a very Happy Mother's Day. Thank you for all the sacrifices you have made for us. Thank you for the gift of life. Today as we gather as a parish, we gather with Mother Church to receive all she has to share with us. My prayer for our parish is that we recognize the maternal gifts of the Church. The Church is meant to be a place for healing, and nurturing our God-given gifts, it is a place where we can grow in freedom to become true servants of God. I encourage you to seek the freedom that God desires for you, then seek ways to serve and to encourage others. On this Mother's Day, I thank each of you for your prayers, your presence and your gifts that add to this household of faith.

"Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails." (1Cor:13)
