Listening in Mercy

the Holy Spirit: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." We see, then, that God wants to "dwell" with us in a very real way. The Holy Spirit is given to us to guide us and teach us how to understand and keep God's word in all the situations which we face throughout the day.

Aside from the revelation of God's Word, we also do recognize that God's Word is given to us not only in the Scriptures, but also in the Tradition of the Church, and in the teaching of the Pope and the bishops, who have been anointed for this task in an unbroken line going back to Peter and the Apostles. By keeping Christ's word, given to us in Scriptures and in the Church, we open ourselves to the action of God as he comes to dwell with us and leads us home to live with him in his "holy city, Jerusalem." We see how critical is our daily pondering of the word, along with making every effort to learn and follow the teachings of the Church. By keeping and treasuring God's word, we make a place for him to come and live with us, so that he can draw us home to himself.

Stepping into the month of May, let us look to our Blessed Mother Mary as our model and guide in keeping God's word. In the words of Pope Francis, "May she who, with humble and courageous faith, fully cooperated with the Holy Spirit for the incarnation of the Son of God, help us too to allow ourselves to be taught and guided by the Paraclete, so that we may welcome the Word of God and witness to it with our lives."

What prevents me from opening my heart to the Spirit? How do I make the word of God the guiding light and the treasure of my life? In what ways has the Holy Spirit reminded me of all that the Lord has revealed to me?
