PARISH PRIEST SPEAKS..."The Lord God is my help; therefore, I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame." - Isaiah 50:7

We step into this weekend, 'Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord'. We celebrate the triumphal entry of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem, where He will accomplish the saving work of our redemption and then enter His glory. Jesus enters the Royal and Holy City of Jerusalem because He is truly the King who gives eternal life. Today's readings help us enter deeply into the mystery we celebrate throughout Holy Week. Jesus fulfils the prophetic nature of Psalm 118. He is the true King; He is the Messiah who comes in the name of the Lord; He is the one who goes to the altar to offer sacrifice. However, He will act as King, Messiah and Priest in a manner that will disappoint many. He is not headed to the Jerusalem temple to sacrifice on the altar there. Rather, He is going to the altar of the Cross on which He will offer Himself for the glory of God and for the salvation of the world. In the light of Easter, the early Christians took the acclamation with which the crowds welcomed Jesus on Palm Sunday and adopted it to welcome the One who comes to us in the Holy Eucharist Sacrifice. We still sing this very acclamation at every Mass, at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, with the Sanctus: "Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest." We can now see that, while Jesus was entering Jerusalem, the earthly holy city, for the ancient Jewish Passover, His ultimate goal was the Heavenly Jerusalem. He had come to offer the Sacrifice of Himself on the Cross as the New and True Passover Lamb which fulfils and supersedes the Passover of the Old Testament. He establishes the New Passover, the New Covenant with His Blood. As our true and eternal High Priest, Christ is heading not to a man-made sanctuary in Jerusalem which is merely a shadow of the real one, but He is entering the real sanctuary, Heaven, in the presence of God, where He will reign in glory as God with the Father. Hence, today's second reading describes how His humble descent through self-emptying led to His exaltation in glory. Jesus has come to take us along with Him to the glory of Heaven. On our journey through Holy Week, we follow in the footsteps of the Lord, so that we may share in His Passover from death to new life.

REFLECTION:

During Lent, how has Jesus' meekness and obedience unto death on the Cross instilled in me a greater love for Him? How often in my daily trials and sufferings do I utter the words of Jesus, "Father, not my will but your will be done"? How has my Lenten observances prepared me to follow Jesus on His journey to Calvary?

Bicara Paderi... "Tuhan adalah penolongku, sebab itu aku tidak dihina; aku telah menegakkan mukaku seperti batu, karena aku tahu, bahwa aku tidak akan dimalukan." - Yesaya 50:7

Kita memasuki akhir pekan ini, 'Minggu Palem Sengsara Tuhan'. Kita merayakan kemenangan masuknya Kristus ke Yerusalem, di mana Dia akan menyelesaikan karya penebusan kita dan kemudian masuk ke dalam kemuliaan-Nya. Yesus memasuki Kota Yerusalem yang Kudus dan Kerajaan karena Dia benar-benar Raja yang memberikan kehidupan kekal. Bacaan hari ini membantu kita untuk masuk lebih dalam ke dalam misteri yang kita rayakan selama Pekan Suci. Yesus menggenapi nubuat dari Mazmur 118. Dia adalah Raja yang sejati; Dia adalah Mesias yang datang dalam nama Tuhan; Dia adalah orang yang pergi ke mezbah untuk mempersembahkan kurban. Namun, Dia akan bertindak sebagai Raja, Mesias dan Imam dengan cara yang akan mengecewakan banyak orang. Dia tidak akan pergi ke Bait Suci Yerusalem untuk mempersembahkan korban di atas mezbah di sana. Sebaliknya, Dia akan pergi ke mezbah Salib di mana Dia akan mempersembahkan diri-Nya untuk kemuliaan Allah dan keselamatan dunia. Dalam terang Paskah, umat Kristiani mula-mula mengambil seruan yang digunakan orang banyak untuk menyambut Yesus pada hari Minggu Palma dan mengadopsinya untuk menyambut Dia yang datang kepada kita dalam Kurban Ekaristi Kudus. Kita masih menyanyikan aklamasi ini di setiap Misa, di awal Liturgi Ekaristi, dengan Sanctus: "Hosana di tempat yang mahatinggi. Diberkatilah Dia

REFLEKSI:

Selama masa Prapaskah, bagaimana kelemah-lembutan dan ketaatan Yesus sampai mati di kayu salib telah menanamkan kasih yang lebih besar kepada-Nya dalam diri saya?
Seberapa sering dalam perjalanan dan penderitaan sehari-hari saya mengucapkan kata-kata Yesus, "Bapa, bukan kehendak-Ku, melainkan kehendak-Mulah yang terjadi?"
Bagaimana ibadah Prapaskah saya mempersiapkan saya untuk mengikuti Yesus dalam perjalanan-Nya ke Kalvari?
