CDM Kampung-Ku --- APRIL 2023

Know our faith: Why do I need to practice works of Mercy?

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions

We pray for a culture of peace and non-violence, by decreasing the use of weapons by States and citizens.

PARISH PRIEST SPEAKS... "Do not be unbelieving, but believe." My Lord and my God!" - John 20: 27-28

This weekend, we celebrate our parish feast day, the feast of Divine Mercy, which takes us right to the heart of the Paschal Mystery. On Good Friday, we stood at the foot of the Cross with Jesus as He suffered and died. Last Sunday, we came to the empty tomb with Mary Magdalene, Peter, and John, and rejoiced to find that the Lord had risen from the dead. Today, we are with the disciples as Jesus comes into our midst and shows us His wounded hands and His side. He wants us to really look at His wounds. This becomes even clearer when He says to Thomas: "Put your finger here and see my hands and bring your hand and put it into my side." It is valuable for us to stop and ponder Jesus' wounds today. We can spend some time perhaps contemplating a crucifix or an image of the crucifixion. This is God, and He has been wounded for our sake! This revelation is unique to Christianity. He did this as an act of mercy for us.

In his homily for the canonization of Sr. Faustina, Pope Saint John Paul II said this: "Divine Mercy reaches human being through the heart of Christ crucified: 'My daughter, say that I am love and mercy personified,' Jesus will ask Sr. Faustina (Diary, p. 374). And is not Mercy love's 'second name' understood in its deepest and most tender aspect, in its ability to take upon itself the burden of any need and, especially, in its immense capacity for forgiveness?" (Homily, Mass for the Canonization of Sr. Mary Faustina Kowalska, Sunday, 30 April 2000, no. 2). On the Cross, Jesus won forgiveness for us by taking on the burden of our sin. In doing so, God was truly wounded; He truly suffered and died.

We often struggle to believe how much God really loves us. In today's Gospel He speaks directly to our hearts about this very question: "Put your finger here and see my hands and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." These wounds bear witness that I love you even more than my own life! Can we possibly love like this? Can we beg God's forgiveness and healing, even for those who have wounded us? Can we show forth the merciful love of Jesus in the world? Certainly not by our own power, but the readings today assure us that this is possible by the power of the Spirit working in us. Let us enter deeply into the Wounded Heart of Jesus today as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday so that, through us, He may continue pouring forth His mercy upon the world. Jesus, I trust in you!

Blessed Feast Day!!!

REFLECTION:

"All grace flows from mercy, and the last hour abounds with mercy for us. Let no one doubt concerning the goodness of God; even if a person's sins were as dark as night, God's mercy is stronger than our misery. One thing alone is necessary; that the sinner set ajar the door of his heart, be it ever so little, to let in a ray of God's merciful grace, and then God will do the rest." (No. 1507)

Bicara Paderi... "Janganlah kamu tidak percaya, tetapi percayalah." Tuhanku dan Allahku! - Yohanes 20: 27-28

Pada hujung minggu ini, kita akan merayakan Pesta paroki kita, Pesta Kerahiman Illahi, yang membawa kita langsung ke hati Misteri Paskah. Pada hari Jumaat Agung, kita berdiri di kaki Salib bersama Yesus saat Dia menderita dan wafat. Pada hari Minggu lalu, kita datang ke kubur yang kosong bersama Maria Magdalena, Petrus, dan Yohanes, dan bersyukur apabila mendapati bahwa Tuhan telah bangkit dari antara orang mati. Hari ini, ketika kita bersama dengan para murid, Yesus datang di tengah-tengah kita dan menunjukkan kepada kita tangan-Nya dan lambung-Nya yang terluka. Dia ingin kita benar-benar melihat luka-luka-Nya. Hal ini sangat jelas ketika Dia berkata kepada Tomas: "Letakkan jarimu di sini dan lihatlah tangan-Ku, angkatlah tanganmu dan taruhlah di lambung-Ku." Sungguh berharga bagi kita untuk berhenti sejenak dan merenungkan luka-luka Yesus hari ini. Kita boleh meluangkan waktu untuk merenungkan Salib atau gambar Penyaliban.

untuk mengampuni?" (Homili; Misa Kanonisasi Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, Minggu, 30 Apr 2000, no.2).

Di kayu salib, Yesus memenangi pengampunan bagi kita dengan memikul beban dosa kita. Dengan melakukan hal itu, Allah benar-benar terluka; Dia benar-benar menderita dan wafat. Kita sering kali sulit untuk percaya bahwa Allah sungguh-sungguh mengasihi kita. Dalam Injil hari ini, Dia berbicara langsung ke dalam hati kita dengan pertanyaan ini: "Letakkan jarimu di sini dan lihatlah tangan-Ku, lalu angkatlah tanganmu dan taruhlah di lambung-Ku, dan janganlah kamu tidak percaya, tetapi percayalah." Luka-luka ini menjadi saksi bahwa Aku mengasihi kamu bahkan lebih dari hidupku sendiri!

Dapatkah kita mengasihi seperti ini? Dapatkah kita memohon pengampunan dan kesembuhan dari Tuhan, bahkan bagi mereka yang telah melukai kita? Dapatkah kita menunjukkan kasih Yesus yang penuh belas kasihan kepada dunia? Tentu saja tidak dengan kekuatan kita sendiri, tetapi bacaan-bacaan hari ini meyakinkan kita bahwa hal ini dimungkinkan oleh kuasa Roh Kudus yang bekerja di dalam diri kita. Marilah kita masuk lebih dalam ke dalam Hati Yesus yang Terluka pada hari ini saat kita merayakan Minggu Kerahiman Illahi, agar melalui kita, Dia dapat terus mencurahkan belas kasih-Nya kepada dunia. Yesus, Aku percaya kepada-Mu!

Selamat Hari Pesta Kerahiman Illahi !!!
Fr. Michael Raymond OFM. Cap

REFLEKSI

"Segala rahmat mengalir dari kerahiman, dan saat terakhir pun akan penuh dengan kerahiman bagi kita. Hendaknya tidak seorang pun meragukan kebaikan Allah; juga kalau dosa-dosanya sehitam malam kelam. Kerahiman Allah lebih besar daripada kepapaan kita. Hanya satu hal yang perlu, yakni agar pendosa membiarkan pintu hatinya terbuka meskipun sangat kecil, untuk membiarkan sinar rahmat Allah yang maharahim masuk; kemudian, selebihnya akan dikerjakan oleh Allah (Dairi No. 1507)
