Bicara Paderi...

Hari minggu ini kita merayakan Minggu Tritunggal Mahakudus, sebuah perayaan yang merenungkan dan memuji misteri Tuhan, yang adalah satu dalam persekutuan tiga Pribadi, Bapa, Putra dan Roh Kudus. Perayaan Tritunggal Mahakudus membawa kita untuk merenungkan misteri Tuhan yang tidak berhenti menciptakan, menebus dan menguduskan, membolehkan setiap makhluk yang menyambut-Nya untuk memantulkan sinar keindahan, kebaikan dan kebenaran-Nya. Iman kepada Tritunggal adalah asas segalanya dalam agama kita. Tanpa pemahaman dasar tentang Tritunggal, kita tidak akan tahu siapa Roh Kudus itu, kerana Dia adalah Roh Bapa dan Anak. Kita tidak akan tahu siapa Yesus sebenarnya, kerana Dia adalah Anak Bapa yang diperanankan secara kekal. Kita tidak akan tahu apa itu Surga, kerana Surga adalah tempat di mana kita akan berkongsi dalam kehidupan Bapa, Anak, dan Roh Kudus dalam satu persekutuan kasih yang penuh sukacita. Iman kepada Tritunggal juga memampukan kita untuk memahami secara lebih lengkap tentang apa erti hidup kita di dunia ini. Kita dipanggil untuk mengasihi sebagaimana Tuhan mengasihi, kerana Tuhan adalah kasih. Kasih adalah teras kepada segala yang wujud.

Memang benar bahawa kita tidak dapat memahami sepenuhnya misteri itu, tetapi itu bukan kerana ada sesuatu yang salah dengan misteri itu. Juga bukan kerana misteri itu belum dipahami dengan benar oleh Gereja. Ini kerana kita terhad-hal yang sangat baik untuk diingat. Ada banyak hal yang tidak sepenuhnya kita fahami. Salah satunya adalah Tuhan sendiri. Jika kita dapat memahami-Nya, kita tidak akan menyembah-Nya sebagai Tuhan, dan tidak akan menundukkan diri kita kepada-Nya. Tuhan jauh lebih besar, lebih tinggi, lebih kuat, dan lebih berilmu daripada kita. Dia melampaui kita

REFLEKSI:

*Apakah saya merasa sulit untuk merenungkan misteri agung Tritunggal Mahakudus?
Dapatkah saya merendah hati menerima pemahaman tidak sepenuhnya tentang misteri Tritunggal ini?*

CDM Kampung-Ku --- JUNE 2023

Celebrate our faith: The real presence of Christ in the Eucharist

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions

We pray that the international community may commit to in a concrete way in ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit..." - Matthew 28:19

Parish Priest speaks...

We celebrate this weekend the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, a celebration contemplating and lauding the mystery of the God, who is one in the communion of the three Persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity leads us to contemplate the mystery of God who unceasingly creates, redeems and sanctifies, enabling every creature that welcomes him to reflect a ray of his beauty, goodness and truth.

Faith in the Trinity is the foundation of everything else in our religion. Without some basic understanding of the Trinity, we would have no idea who the Holy Spirit is, for he is the Spirit of the Father and the Son. We would not know who Jesus really is, for he is the eternally begotten Son of the Father. We would not know what Heaven is, for Heaven is where we will share in the life of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in one joyful communion of love. Faith in the Trinity also enables us to understand more fully what our life here on earth is about. We are called to love as God loves, because God is love. Love is at the very core of everything that exists.

It is certainly true we cannot fully grasp the mystery, but that is not because there is something wrong with the mystery. Nor is it because it has not been properly understood by the Church. It is because we are limited—which is a very good thing to remember. There are many things we simply do not fully understand. One of them is God himself. If we could understand him, we would not worship him as God, nor would we submit ourselves to him. God is infinitely bigger, higher, stronger, and more knowledgeable than we are. He surpasses us in every way. Still, to know the truth about God, like any truth, is very liberating because the truth will set us free (cf. Jn 8:32).

The truth is that God is not three different "things" all mixed up together in one package. God is one, The Father is God; the Son is God; the Holy Spirit is God. Each is distinct and yet they are not three gods; there is one divine being. As the Catechism teaches us: "Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity" (CCC 233). Therefore, when Jesus charges us in today's Gospel to go and make disciples of all nations, he tells us to baptize them "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

God is a communion of Persons in relationships so perfect that they form a perfect unity. Therefore, as we reflect on relationships—our relationship with God and with others—we can gain precious insight into God himself. Human relationships are reflections of God in the world: every family is an image of God; every marriage is an image of God. Every time people gather in unity and love, they reflect the Trinity. As St. John says, "No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is perfected in us" (1Jn 4:12). We have been drawn into this communion of love with the Triune God and we are called to share this love with the whole world.

REFLECTION:

Do I find it difficult to ponder on the great mystery of the Holy Trinity?
 Can I humbly accept my human limitations in not understanding fully this mystery of the Trinity?
